ESCAPING CONVICTS TRAPPED

Blood-Gulled Tiger-Men, Armed and Desperate, Ready to Give Battle

Leader Slain in Second Prison Delivery at Wyoming State Penitentiary

RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 14.—Two dead, four wounded, a battle imminent in the hills and a town in a state of terror is the result of yesterday's bloody prison break here.

The dead: CHAS. STRESSNER, barber, shot by convicts.

Wounded:

BERT TALBERT, liveryman, stabbed by Antone Pazo.

Convict, shot by Marshal Hayes.

Two more convicts reported shot by posses.

Heavily armed posses from Rawlins, Saratoga and Bagg's started out at daybreak this morning to scour the Rocky Hills between here and the Colorado line, and if possible capture or kill the escaped convicts from the Wyoming penitentiary who are in hiding. The searchers have orders to shoot to kill on sight. Several of the convicts are armed and no quarter is expected on either side.

A report reached here this morning that another convict had been shot five miles south of town, but this has not been verified.

TRAPPED IN HILLS. Armed with shotguns, rifles, revolvers, cleavers and butcher knives, a half dozen or more of these convicts, known as the most dangerous criminals in the West, were said to be trapped in a canyon just south of Rawlins early today and a battle with a posse of a hundred men, who camped.

LOSS IS GREAT. The Montenegrins lost 100 killed and wounded in their attack on the town of Bilepolje in the San Jaks.

CUBS TAKE ANOTHER GAME FROM WHITE SOX

First inning: Cubs 0, Sox 0. Second inning: Cubs 0, Sox 0. Third inning: Cubs 3, Sox 0. Fourth inning: Cubs 0, Sox 0. Fifth inning: Cubs 0, Sox 0.

TURKS ARE ROUTED IN BATTLE

Montenegrins Capture Guns of Enemy and Fire on Fleeing Troops

Sublime Porte Turns Down Offer of Powers Looking to Peace

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Reports have reached Cetinje, says a dispatch from the Montenegrin capital, to the Express, that a terrible battle was waged Friday evening, the Montenegrins attacking the Turks at the foot of Shroka mountain, forcing them to retire with a loss of 300 men. The Montenegrins took many prisoners. The casualty list on the Montenegrin side is estimated at one hundred killed or wounded.

Two Turkish gunboats on Lake Scutari bombarded General Martonovich's right wing. The conflicting reports from the Balkan capitals as to whether the reply to the powers and the note to Turkey would be delivered Sunday night or Monday appear to be due to the uncertainty of telegraphic connections. It is explained that the notes were handed to the respective legations last night and will be delivered Monday.

TAKES UP GAUNTLET. Turkey took up today the gauntlet thrown down by the Balkan States, and events in the Near East crowded close upon one another to hasten what is believed to be the inevitable general outbreak.

The Sultan's government formally declined the proffered interferences in its proposed program of reduction of its forces in Macedonia and coincidentally assumed the offensive itself, invading Servia.

Servia's representative at Constantinople, as well as those of Greece and Bulgaria, was notified by his government today to prepare to leave on a moment's notice.

The participation of Greece in the conflict was almost assured by the Athens government's deliverance of an ultimatum demanding the release of Greek ships seized at Constantinople.

More success has followed the determined advance of the Montenegrin armies under King Nicholas and Prince Danilo.

LOSS IS GREAT. The Montenegrins lost 100 killed and wounded in their attack on the town of Bilepolje in the San Jaks.

Extra! T. R. Refrains From Speech-Making

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt refrained from speech-making today in order to save his voice. Roosevelt planned to spend the most of the morning at his hotel, his speeches in Illinois and Northern Indiana having been cancelled. Roosevelt expected to go to Milwaukee for a night meeting.

Snake Bite Cured; Remedy Disastrous

Litten by a rattlesnake in Nevada on October 9, Samuel McGovern of Pacific Avenue, Alameda, applied heroic treatment by cutting out the snake marks on his head, took a quantity of the usual antidote and returned to his home. The knife wound became infected, however, and he was taken at the receiving hospital yesterday by Stewart Davison, who had expected to go to Milwaukee for a night meeting.

Gasoline Explodes; Mother And Three Children Perish

OXNARD, Oct. 14.—Mrs. F. F. F. was burning when the explosion occurred. Her two small daughters and wife, who were burned to death early in the day when a gasoline explosion, were to save them, but only spread the flames and before aid arrived the house was buried to the masonry.

MONTENEGRINS SLAY 300 TURKS IN FIERCE BATTLE

Force Soldiers of Sublime Perse to Retire With Heavy Losses

of Novopazar says an official report received by the Montenegrin Consul General and the Turks who fled after the battle in Sjenica are said to have suffered heavily.

General Martonovitch's advance guard encountered a body of Turkish troops from Terakosch and inflicted a loss of 300 killed and wounded during the battle while the Montenegrins losses totalled 100.

General Martonovitch burned several Turkish blockhouses, put their garrisons to flight and then with his troops crossed the River Bayana. The Matissos tribesmen in the neighborhood of Scutari have joined forces with the Montenegrin troops.

The Balkan situation caused a loss in consols on the London exchange today and began a new low record of 73 1/2.

The exchange was erratic but was quietest on Saturday.

TOWN DEMOLISHED.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Cetinje to the Times says:

"As far as known, the Turks have not yet been dislodged from the entrenchments behind Shipchek (Schicerik) although the fort has been demolished, while the fortified heights of Vranje, a few miles further south, also remain to be taken."

"The energy of the Montenegrins is only equalled by the strength of the Turkish resistance. On both sides the battle of generations is finding vent and compared with the strength of the forces engaged the losses are heavy. The Montenegrins pay tribute to the valor of the Turks, who provide good artillery but bad ammunition."

been taken prisoners. A blockhouse at Aradz has been leveled.

Describing the capture of Detrichitch mountain a correspondent at the front says the final charge of the Montenegrins was so furious that the retreating Turks had no time to disable their guns and that they were actually fired at with their own guns by the Montenegrins.

The noted Macedonian leader Tudor Lazic committed suicide Friday, says the Sofia Journal, because the military officers refused to carry him in the army because he was suffering from tuberculosis. He left a letter saying he could not remain behind to die in bed while his brothers were fighting for liberty. The incident has acted as a spur to patriotism.

FORT DEMOLISHED.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Cetinje to the Times says:

TURK SNUBS POWERS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 14.—The Turkish government declines to allow the powers to intervene in the question of Macedonian reform.

Its reply to the representatives of the powers was handed to the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador here this morning. While thanking the united forces for their friendly interest in the Balkan situation, the reply says that Turkey is determined to carry out the promised reforms without any foreign interference.

DEMANDS REFORM.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Sofia correspondent of the Times says that the Bulgarian note to Turkey demands an undertaking to execute the reforms within six months and the recall of the order of mobilization.

An official account of the operations on the Montenegrin frontier reaching the Daily Telegraph by way of Constantinople says the Montenegrins massacred every man, woman and child in the villages around Aradz without distinction of race or religion. After seven fighting the Turks recaptured Akova and drove the enemy back in disorder. The Montenegrin campaign, says the dispatch, may already be considered at an end.

TURKS SUFFER LOSSES.

PODGORITZA, Oct. 14.—The Montenegrin troops occupied yesterday another position still closer to the town of Guseine, according to the official report of General Vukotitch, the commander of that division of the Montenegrin army. The Turks offered stubborn resistance and suffered heavy losses, according to the general.

The Montenegrins occupied yesterday two other Turkish positions commanding Guseine. During the fighting they captured four machine guns, many rifles and a large quantity of ammunition.

The Montenegrin casualties since the outbreak of hostilities totalled up to yesterday morning 256 killed and more than 800 wounded.

CROSS BORDER.

BELGRADE, Serbia, Oct. 14.—A body of Turkish troops crossed the border of Serbia yesterday at Ristovatz, near Vraca, at 5 o'clock this morning and attacked the Serbian garrison there, according to an official dispatch from the Serbian general in command.

Fighting was still in progress when the message was sent.

Mrs. King sustained a broken collarbone and internal injuries, and is in a serious condition in the Presbyterian Hospital. King was uninjured.

The Kings were going east in Chestnut street, and at Forty-eighth street a child became confused and stood directly in front of the car. Making a quick turn, King swerved the car clear of the child.

At the time he slowed down, an automobile owned and driven by F. J. Myers of 213 South Eleventh street, crashed into the rear of his car. The driver, Kirkpatrick, of the Thirty-eighth street, and Woodland avenue station, placed Mrs. King in Myers' car and had her taken to the hospital.

CAPWELLS 23 YEARS OLD

Big Store Celebrating Anniversary, Has Grown Wonderfully Since 1889.

Ambitious merchants will find plenty of inspiration this week at the big C. Capwell Company department store, who are twenty-three years of successful business, are being celebrated.

This concern first opened for business in 1889, in a small store 24x100 at Tenth and Washington streets, being among the first merchandise stores to open up on that street. On account of the location many predicted failure for it but the good judgment of the proprietor was borne out and the little store grew and prospered until in less than a year it was moved to larger quarters on the corner of Tenth and Washington. Here enlargement after enlargement was made until all available space being outgrown the firm decided to erect its own building in its present location on Clay, Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, where today there stands as a monument to the perseverance and genius of its founders one of the greatest retail establishments on the Pacific coast.

In celebration of the store's twenty-third birthday the owners, H. C. Capwell and A. S. Lavenson, are having a jubilee week and the aisles of the big store are crowded with old patrons and new.

Not only commercially has Capwell's branched forth, for with the erection of the new store the welfare of the employees was of great interest to the owners and on the fifth floor of the store, adjoining what is conceded to be one of the most beautiful flower gardens in the country, there is a large, airy, thoroughly sanitary dining room for the employees, where food of the best quality is served in cafeteria fashion at very low cost. At noonday this room has the atmosphere of a social club.

Through this co-operation with their employees Capwells believe they can achieve better results both for themselves and for their patrons.

LEADER IS SLAIN.

The total number of prisoners to escape, it is said at the prison, will not be known definitely until those remaining within the walls are lined up for roll-call, some time today. Owing to the excitement at Rawlins, the total casualties are not definitely known. Antone Pazo, a Mexican herald as leader of the convicts in their fight for liberty, was shot to death by Deputy Sheriff Hugh Rogan.

When we saw the Mexican as he started on his perch above the hills, after having slashed Bert Tolbert of the livery barn across the face and head with a butcher knife.

Charles Stresner, a barber, was shot to death while walking along the street, apparently unaware that the convicts had escaped and seemed bent on murdering all who blocked their paths. A negro convict was seen to flee at Stresner.

Five of the convicts who escaped yesterday were captured last night. They were

SEEK REJECTED SUITOR AS WOMAN'S ASSAILANT

Manuel Frates Blamed for Shooting of Mrs. Emily Pletz

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14—Mrs. Emily Pletz of 870 Oak street, wife of F. W. Pletz of the Torrey Paper and Paint Co., is at St. Mary's hospital suffering intense pain with physicians watching over her fearing for her life as the result of an assault made upon her at her home last night in which she was stricken dumb. The police of all the bay cities are searching for Manuel Frates, a barber of Melrose, who has been intruding himself upon the Pletz family for several years in an endeavor to make love to the wife.

At an early hour this morning Dr. W. L. Nuckles, who was called in following the shooting last night, and House Surgeon Duffley operated upon Mrs. Pletz and removed some of the bullets which struck her.

The woman was in the kitchen of her home in company with her husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. Stewart of 285 East Tenth street, Oakland, a nurse when she was called to the door by a knock.

She answered. Immediately four shots were heard. As her husband, with a revolver in his hand, rushed into the hallway, he was just in time to catch his wife as she fell swooning to the floor, covered with blood. She had been shot three times in the face, one of the bullets entering her mouth in such manner as to paralyze the vocal chord and prevent articulation. A fourth shot struck her in the right arm.

ASSAILANT ESCAPES. The woman had by this time escaped out the open door, which the police have, other than the statement of Mrs. Pletz and her family, is a black derby hat which General Farrel of the Park station picked up in the yard.

HAS ANYBODY HERE SEEN KELLY? YES!

He May Be Seen at the Pantages in His "Dress Suit" and High Hat.

One-half of the former Kelly-Violet vaudeville pair is again "in our midst." It is the Kelly half, and Kelly may be seen in a dress suit—not in evening clothes, but in a dress suit—at the Pantages. Kelly is called the fashion-plate singing comedian, and the fashion-plate feature has as much of a "punch" as his singing. Kelly brings embellishments with his songs and his dress suit. He embellishes his song of an Hawaiian girl with a hula-hula step and his high hat with a band which reaches half way to the top.

Lover of the violin will welcome Franz Adelmann. Adelmann's classical selections bring recollections of his work in the days when he was concert master with the Fritz Scheel orchestra in San Francisco. He was well received yesterday, although he did not bring his ragtime violin with him.

Paul Gordon and Ricca open the show with singing, dancing, talking and cycling, but the greatest of these is their cycling.

The Keane trio of young women warble melodiously a number of popular airs.

"Just Like a Man," a sketch played by Fred Graham, Nelle Dent and company, shows how one man prepared for a railroad journey with his wife, and was kept at home because he sent all his trousers away in his trunk.

Alice Teddy, the roller-skating, wrestling bear, is again entertaining. Pauline Miller, Alice Miller, held a reception on the stage after the matinee next Saturday, to which all the children of the city are invited.

Boys' Wolf's Chicklets, a musical comedy tableau, featuring Raymond Payne and Hazel McKee, furnishes fifteen minutes of mirth and melody. The chicklet chorus introduces several novelties.

Gaumont's weekly motion picture takes the vaudeville on a tour of the entire world.

GOING TO BE COLD IN 16,912, HE SAYS

Dr. Cook Declares We'll All Be Eskimos by That Time.

TOLETT, Ill., Oct. 14.—In 16,912, 18,000 years from today, people living north of the Mason and Dixon line will be Eskimos.

At least that is the belief expressed by Dr. Frederick A. Cook, explorer and scientist, in an interview here.

"In 16,912, 18,000 years from now they'll be wearing furs and eating blubber instead of hombone in this part of the country," said Dr. Cook. "Instead of traveling to his lady love's igloo, the gay Lothario of that day will drive to her ice-packed domicile in a sled drawn by dogs and will spend the evening of two long months' duration before her fire of blubber oil talking of placing an ivory ring on her finger when the sealskin and walrus harpoon is over."

This change in climate and domestic conditions will be due, Dr. Cook avers, to a change in the ellipse of the earth around the sun, slowing this planet out of its present orbit and away from the source of heat, changing the entire solar system and transforming this into a celestial state such as exists around the north pole. This discovery was made by Dr. Cook while in the polar region, he states.

The middleman has as much to do with the high cost of living as the trusts, says Mrs. McNaughton, and she advises all men who purchase goods to see that they are full weight for their money, even if they have to do as she did.

Mrs. Andrews lives at No. 50 Wardell Avenue in the aristocratic section of Westerleigh. Her husband is a business man of substantial means. Shortly before noon Minnie Giger, a neighbor of Mrs. Andrews, Long Island City, came along with a wagon load of potatoes, and Mrs. Andrews told him to bring them in a bushel bag. When he had gone she weighed out of sixty pounds of his first crop.

Putting on her hat and coat she went to Stapleton, Stapleton is ten miles from Westerleigh, where Magistrate Joseph Handy had to go to the New Brighton court. Then she went back and wandered around Stapleton until she found Giger and placed him under arrest.

"We are now between two such glacial periods," Dr. Cook declares.

CARFIELD, Idaho, Oct. 14.—J. F. Miller, a laborer, was shot and instantly killed here by his young son, Samuel, who, when awakened by his five-year-old sister and told their mother was being killed, seized a rifle and fired two shots at his father.

The shooting was the outcome of long standing domestic troubles in which the children had taken sides. According to neighbors, Miller had been drinking heavily and had been heard to say he would stay home entirely.

According to the other three children, the boy fired when he discovered his father dragging the woman from one room to another.

THIS MAN IDENTIFIED
CRIMINALS BY EARS

NEW YORK, Oct. 14—Seymour Beutler for years the identifier for the Pinkerton detective agency died yesterday at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. David Friedman here. He had been ill with pneumonia since last Thursday. It was said of Beutler that he had a knowledge of 15,000 crooks of various sorts and that those whom he knew would have no difficulty in effecting his release from prison. For the past thirty years he traveled from one end of the country to the other identifying criminals who had never seen him. His ears, Beutler said, were his principal means of identification. They never change and cannot be disguised.

SEE HELP IN FOREST FIRE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14—Forest rangers sent in a call yesterday for help in combating a stubborn fire sweeping through the grass and underbrush in the hills a range southeast of here. The fire has been fanned by a strong breeze. The blaze has burned over considerable territory and is reported as spreading.

TIMELY

HINTSCUMMINS TALKS ON
STUMP BY PROXY

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 14—Senator Cummins has given out the first of a series of letters to the Republicans of Iowa in which he promises to discuss the issues of the campaign. In his opening sentence the senator expresses regret that a slight physical infirmity will keep him from taking his usual place on the stump.

In the letter he maintained the right of a Republic to declare independence of the action of the party at Chicago.

Cummins says that the Republican party is facing a hard fight to retain its "slender majority" in the state.

THREE BEARS IN SIX SHOTS.
CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—J. A. Mitchell, a barber, was busy yesterday tanning the hides of two bear cubs. He also sent to San Francisco the hide of an old bear to be tanned. The three bears were bagged by Mitchell in six hours, for which time he was hunting recently near McMinnville, about ten miles east of Chico. He fired three shots into the mother bear, two into one cub and one into the other cub.

PURPOSES OF THE ORDER

It may not be appropriate at this time for me to speak briefly upon the purposes of our order. The Native Sons of the Golden West were organized 27 years ago in the city of San Francisco, for the principal object of preserving and perpetuating the history of California. The unique annals of this state have compelled worldwide attention. The romance of the golden days and the burdens and hardships of the plowmen have contributed to the world's literature and have placed California in a niche of her own among the states of the union. And it is this wonderful record of achievement by the pioneer men and women of California that the Native Sons of the Golden West have taken as a heritage and have registered a solemn pledge to hold inviolate for all time.

PASSING OF THE PIONEERS.

The sturdy men and women of '49 are fast passing. We of the new generation must bear the burden and perform the task. As I look over the record I find that the order is progressing and that, numerically, it is making headway. I believe that its purposes warrant such growth for traditions so glorious as those of early California cannot but appeal to the sentiment and the loyalty of her native born. Permit me to note that the growth in the last twelve years has nearly doubled the total enrollment. January 1, 1900, the membership was 11,968. January 1, 1912, the grand secretary's register showed a total of 20,768 members.

Upon this great fraternity is placed a large responsibility. And that duty it seems to me is at no time more impressively pointed out than now when we are brought together at these services. Surely our word of respect would not reach beyond this platform unless we should give it a real meaning by our attitude toward the problems of the living.

TRIBUTE TO THE DEAD

No greater tribute can be paid to our brethren who are enshrouded upon the tablets of memory than to conduct ourselves so that the cardinal principles of this splendid organization shall be our guide along the paths that lead to eternal life. Finally, to the best traditions of our fraternity means loyalty to the memory of the departed brothers.

Loyalty to the fraternity means loyalty to the men and women whose sufferings and privations made possible the wonderful record which we are now endeavoring to maintain. The Native Sons of the Golden West of Alameda county hold their annual memorial day exercises yesterday afternoon in Chabot Hall. The impressive ceremonies were opened by an invocation and benediction by Rev. J. L. P. Morris, pastor of St. John's Church, Berkeley. The Master of Ceremonies read a formal address of welcome. It is addressed to us by Rev. Dr. J. M. Smith, Congresswoman Ida B. Knowland, last grand marshal, delivered the memorial address and Jack George S. nuts presented the eulogy.

It was given time to the direction of Mrs. Josephine Crew, who acted as warden.

ADDRESS OF MAYOR FRANK K. MOTT

In the absence of Major Matt the following address prepared by him was read by him, Mr. Frank K. Mott. Mr. Chairman, Friends and Fellow citizens: "This afternoon in accordance with the custom of this fraternity and its acknowledgment of its sublime purpose to pay tribute of respect to those of our brethren who have been called to their final resting place by the inscrutable message of the state of life, it is an occasion which calls for a brief thought and the brief address. It is a time when we should give heed not only to the lessons of the day but to accept and example we should strive to make this solemn and beautiful tribute one of more than words. Today we are brought together so that in proper spirit and reverence we may offer upon the altars of memory full measure of sympathy for those who have been bereaved and full measure of sacred remembrance for those who have been sumitted into eternity. Well may we pay attention to the spirit and strength of duty, attention to give heed to the call that brings us to observe this day of remembrance.

UNCERTAINTY OF LIFE.

"The calling of those in the full vigor of their manhood causes the uncertainty of life to loom up before us. It should teach us lesson and impress us with the necessity of right living. No one can live for self alone. We may endeavor to live, but the influences and currents of life are such that every life, whether good or bad, affects the sum total of human conduct. The happiest and most contented person is the one who strives to cheer and brighten the lives of those with whom he comes in contact. This may sometimes appear difficult in the midst of our present feverish struggle for existence when we continually encounter so much that is sordid and sad.

"Let our influence be on the side of the weak and helpless in life for in death they do not need us. The kind word spoken and the noble act performed while life remained and the friends were part of supporting the sum total of which that word or act might have occasioned are of far greater value than the most eloquent eloquence after death. How many times kind words and gentle deeds may lighten the burden the weary soul has been carrying.

PIONEERS BIG-HEARTED.

"The example of our pioneer father and mothers should ever be an inspiration to us. They did not live for self alone. Big-hearted and self-sacrificing the effect of their lives will ever be felt. Their influence was always on the side of the weak and helpless. They divided their last crust of bread. When the members of the Donner party, forced to winter in the Sierras, were starving, there were innumerable instances of self-sacrifice and self-sacrifice that will ever illumine the pages of California history. General Sutter's life was one of self-sacrifice. Thousands of needy emigrants received assistance at his hands. Every inquirer shared with his comrade.

Our order has grown wonderfully in the estimation of the people during recent years. Its accomplishments have commanded their attention and won their respect. Year by year we have been broadening our sphere of usefulness. Annually we assume some new responsibility, but not at the sacrifice of our fraternal features for we continue to care for the sick, help the troubled, encourage the disheartened and find work for the unemployed. The upbuilding of California is one of our chief aims. The preservation of its history elicits our interest.

ASSUME NEW RESPONSIBILITY.

"Of late years we have assumed a new responsibility—a responsibility that is causing us to experience that keen pleasure which comes with the knowledge that we are doing something for the weak and helpless. And the weak and helpless in this instance are the homeless children of our native state. This work we have undertaken in conjunction with the Native Daughters. One hundred and thirteen little ones, deprived of the loving care of a mother and the watchful care of a father, have been placed in homes during the past year. All over this great state we have made the homeless child happy and likewise brought happiness into the childless home.

"Whenever these children are placed the local parlors of Native Sons and Native Daughters maintain a watchful care over them, and if per chance a mistake is made in the home selected, which seldom happens, that mistake is rectified and a new place of abode is found. It would have touched any one to have heard as was my privilege a few evenings ago, an interesting account of this work from the good lady in charge, past grand president Lillie of the Native Daughters. She related several touching incidents, and one was that of a little boy who was being taken to a new home and on the train he asked if, when he reached his destination, there would be a woman who would come into his room. He heard the covers snoring about him. He and heard of such women but the poor little fatherless and motherless tot had never experienced the thrill of joy and contentment which such a presence brings.

HIGHEST CITIZENSHIP.

"In nearly every county of the state these children have been placed. The Native Sons and Daughters support this agency and it is a great pleasure to do so. What a wonderful work we have undertaken. We are affording these boys and girls a chance in life and by so doing are helping to raise the future standard of citizenship for they will be the men and women of tomorrow. This new responsibility makes better citizens of us.

We should all strive to live that when the remorseless messenger comes to us we will leave the heritage of a pure and upright life. The memory and influence of such a life will endure. Character alone makes the man. Nothing is more important or essential. Honesty, truth, justice, moderation—all these had to do with nobleness before it. It is the highest of all virtues to go to a character station when he is asked if he is an upright and honest man. Life is a consequence of duty faithfully performed. We can appreciate the importance of a man's life by the nobility and character he has in death and character such a life is true and death.

MERIT SYSTEM IS MET WITH FAVOR

Presidential Candidates Give Their Assurances to Manufacturers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14—Assurances have been received from the presidential candidates of the three parties that they favor the merit system of making consular and diplomatic appointments. The American Manufacturers' Export Association announced last night that the candidates' views were submitted in response to a resolution adopted at the association's recent convention here and duly forwarded.

The reply of President Taft referred to his last message to Congress recommending the further extension of the civil service laws to the diplomatic and consular service.

"The system of selecting and retaining officers on the basis of merit has my warm approval," Governor Wilson wrote while Secretary Harper acknowledging receipt of the resolution in Colonel Roosevelt's absence. "I can assure you that Mr. Roosevelt is thoroughly in favor of pursuing just such a policy."

CRUISER SENT TO AID
MARINES IN NICARAGUA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14—The arrival of the big armored cruiser Maryland in Nicaraguan waters will mark the beginning of a general exodus of American forces from that country including the regiment of marines sent from east coast stations at the outbreak of the trouble.

It was pointed out that the dispatching of the Maryland did not mean reinforcements. It is due to the Navy's desire to get some of the smaller vessels away as well as to substitute a real force of marines and bluejackets for those who have seen service during the present trouble.

AUTO TOP SAVES 8
FROM DEATH IN CRASH

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14—Trapped in a large automobile, six of eight persons were injured yesterday afternoon when the car overturned twice down an embankment on a winding mountain road near the foot of Mount Lowe.

The machine was wrecked and the marvelous escapes from death were declared to be due to the top of the automobile being held up, the occupants thus being carried with the rolling automobile instead of being crushed under it.

The automobile party consisted of B. F. Yarnell, his wife and four children, Maud Bell, a nurse girl, and the chauffeur, John McAfee. None of the occupants received fatal injuries.

A stone giving way beneath the wheels of the car is thought to have caused the accident.

HIGH VOLTAGE KILLS
TULARE RANCH HAND

TULARE, Oct. 14—Charles Criss, aged 20, employed on a ranch near Tazos, was instantly killed and Guy Guerin was very painfully burned when they received a shock from a power transmission line which carried 5600 volts.

Criss and Guerin were moving a hay derrick and as they crossed the country road the steel pulley wheel at the top of the derrick struck the lower wire of the transmission line. Railing from this pulley to the base of the machine was a woven-wire cable. Criss took out the steel bar and was preparing to lower the derrick so it would pass under the wire. His bar touched the cable and he was killed instantly.

Guerin is unable to tell how he came in contact with the current. He was standing a distance of forty feet.

KOSMOS' LINE BOAT PUT INTO HARBOR

Alexandria Arrives With Nitro
Cargo on Its First Trip
Here.

Reporting a calm trip the big Kosmos line steamer Alexandria, Captain Schammert, arrived yesterday after a long voyage from the West coast. Upon her arrival on this side, the vessel took up berth at Long wharf, where it is discharging a nitro cargo. This is the initial trip of the Alexandria to this port and it is expected that it will be followed by the Kosmos people to work from here frequently in the future. During the trip from the south the big German freighter touched at the new port of Culver, where she took aboard a small consignment of mahogany logs. The vessel will also leave this portion of her cargo on this side. With the conclusion of the local work, the Berman will load lumber here for Hamburg and way ports. The boat sails November 7.

CLAILS ARE REVERSED. Mayor Hugh Craig stated that his son had obtained the divorce and also custody of the child.

"It was understood that each of the parents should have the boy with them for six months of the year," he said. "Later my son came to the conclusion that the mother was not a fit person to have custody and he secured absolute custody. Myself and wife were appointed guardians."

Colin Craig, another son of Piedmont's chief executive, who is also town magistrate, is said to have taken part in the proceedings Saturday night when his sister-in-law was arrested. Under the circumstances he was not eligible to try the case and the proceedings were turned over to the police courts by the district attorney's office.

The defendant to the charge of disturbing the peace is the daughter of Mrs. Miriam N. Crane, a wealthy woman formerly of Oakland, but recently of Los Gatos. Since their marriage two years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hugh Craig have resided in Atlanta, Georgia, where Craig is president of a local oil company.

Widened suit against her husband's parents for alleged persecution hinges upon the outcome of the case in the justice court, according to Mrs. Craig's attorney. Highly incensed over being thrown into jail last Saturday night, Mrs. Craig declares that she will retaliate through civil proceedings against Mayor Hugh Craig of Piedmont and his wife, Mrs. Inez Craig.

TWO INJURED BY BAD FALL FROM STREET CAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Two men were injured by falls from street cars, at the same point and within one hour, this morning. Both are in a serious condition at the Harbor hospital. Quade Steffano, 814 Webster, a San Francisco man, who had been to a florist shop, fell about to a slight from a car in front of the Palace hotel, when he stumbled, fell to the pavement and received a bruise of the body and a fractured skull. He was taken to the hospital, where it was found that an operation was necessary in a desperate effort to save his life.

Benjamin Goodman, proprietor of a cigar store at 230 Market street, also fell from a car near the Palace hotel and broke his right leg. Dr. Lewis set the fracture at the hospital.

The ferry steamer San Jose, of the Key Route service, is at the Moore & Scott shipyards, undergoing repairs.

The British steamer Victoria is at Long wharf, discharging 2000 tons of coke.

A number of clerks from the Owl Drug Company were out yesterday on a fishing excursion on the launch Cerro. The party landed a good-sized catch.

The steam schooner Tamaipas, Captain Anderson, from the Columbia River, is at the E. K. Wood Lumber Company's wharf discharging a lumber cargo.

The steamer St. Helena, Captain Japineon, completed her work at Long wharf yesterday and sailed for Astoria.

Salings from the inner harbor during the past twenty-four hours included the steam schooner Ravinia and Field.

From an alleged attempt at kidnapping charges against Mrs. Miriam Crane Craig, who spent Saturday night in the county jail, have dwindled to that of disturbing the peace. A warrant was issued this morning by Chief Deputy District Attorney Phil Carey and sworn to before Judge Quinn by Mrs. Inez Craig, wife of Mayor Hugh Craig of Piedmont. Although Mrs. Craig had been lodged in the jail Saturday night and held without a warrant, she was released yesterday on $1000 bonds furnished by L. G. Burnet and Dr. S. J. Saxe, cousins. Judge Smith certified the bonds.

Learning that the warrant was issued, Mrs. Craig surrendered herself and was released on $100 bail. The case will be heard tomorrow at 10 a.m.

Conflicting versions of the trouble led to the arrest of Mrs. Craig in the home of her father-in-law, who placed the circumstances in considerable of a tangle. On her part Mrs. Craig declares that she is entitled to the custody of Gordon Hugh Craig, the 5-year-old son whose father, Roy Hugh Craig had placed in the care of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Craig in their home, 55 Craig avenue, Piedmont.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Guy Eddie, city prosecutor and official censor of public morals, was served with a second warrant today, charging him with having contributed to the delinquency of a minor girl. The complainant, Alma Jones, aged 19, is an octogenarian. Eddie had been a court reporter for the Hall of Records when the warrant was served upon him.

In the new warrant Eddie is charged with having made improper advances to the Jones girl upon the morning of the day he was arrested for a similar offense, alleged to have been committed against Mrs. Alice Phelps, a 20-year-old white girl. The second arrest of Eddie occurred just as he emerged from the chamber in which the secret hearing of the Phelps charges is being held by Judge Wilbur of the Juvenile Court.

IS ALSO MARRIED.

PHYSICAL CULTURE FOR LOCAL POLICE

Captain Bock Orders Men to Take Off Some Weight.

Orders were issued by Day Captain Charles Bock this morning for his men to report for duty at certain hours for setting up drill and athletic exercises at the Oakland Young Men's Christian Association. The men will have two days a week in the gymnasium, as will the men under Captain J. F. Lynch of the night watch.

In place of the regulation blue uniform with brass buttons, the heavy belt and helmet and baton, the Oakland police are to be equipped with tennis shoes, track suits of scanty length and airy quality, and the only weapons they will be allowed to use will be Indian clubs, dumb bells and a wooden stick, an occasional recourse Captain Bock or backed ball.

Chief Walter J. Petersen, with the backing of the civil service commission, has issued the edict that his men must see to it that they are physically fit. They must be able to do the hundred yards in reasonable approximation of ten seconds, and they must be able to jump and hop and scale fences and go up a rope hand over hand. It is planned that the exercises will be standardized as a girl. Those who are too fat will take off 40 pounds, while those who are too lean must increase their chest measure to make up for the lack around the belt line.

The city council passed the ordinance last week entering into contract with the Y. M. C. A. to give the men of the department physical instruction. The ordinance provided an appropriation of $1200 a month for the use of the gymnasium and the assistance of instructors in putting the men through their paces.

All the privileges of gymnasium, tank and shower baths will be accorded, but each man must be equipped with a "locker bag" to contain his outfit, as the number A. is limited.

The ordinance provided an appropriation of $1200 a month for the use of the gymnasium and the assistance of instructors in putting the men through their paces.

The ceremony will be performed in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, former Judge Roger Gaylor, in West Sixteenth street next month, when preparations for the ball will begin. It will probably take place during the holiday season.

In spite of many rumors to the contrary, the marriage of Miss Katrina Page-Brown and Austin Moore will take place Wednesday, October 18.

The ceremony will be performed in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, former Judge Roger Gaylor, in West Sixteenth street next month, when preparations for the ball will begin. It will probably take place during the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Byre will elope to a wedding party at the Maple Park this week with the intention of spending the winter months in town. They will be domiciled at their residence on Buchanan and Washington streets.

Dave Zellerbach made a genial host at a yachting party. A merry group of twenty young people started from Sausalito and drifted to Paradise Cove. There was just enough breeze to make the sailing exceedingly pleasant.

While the tide of travel is swinging toward European shores, a few Americans are returning home to within the portals of their Golden Gate.

Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Michels, who spent the summer on the continent, are now in New York and are expected back during the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Selfridge (Grace Baldwin) are domiciled with Mr. Edward Gaylor at his California street residence in the east.

Mrs. Selfridge is visiting her daughter Mrs. Frederick Kellonell (Katherine Selfridge) at Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sultan, formerly Edna Meyer, are now occupying their beautiful home in the Presidio race.

Mr. Sultan had completely recovered from his recent attack of appendicitis.

San Francisco friends of Miss Irene Mayhew, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William of Niles, have invited her to their home to their Golden Gate.

The color scheme will be carried out in harmonizing shades of gold and mauve, chrysanthemums will decorate and the gown of the bride's attendant will be a golden yellow and lavender blue.

They will be Miss Lillian Guthrie of Portland, Miss Hope Mathews of Oakland, Miss Edna Sharp of Niles and Miss Edith Atherton of Stockton, who will be the maid of honor.

By the new service it will be possible to go direct from this city to Sausalito by boat without first touching at San Francisco, and then changing boats for that point, as is now the case. It is expected that the present time, which is considerably over two hours from this city, will be cut in half.

Several months ago the Crowley Towboat Company of San Francisco made preparations for the service now being planned by the Antioch firm.

The Crowley people, however, were forced to divert their attention to the threatened tugboat war with the Redwood Company and the plan did not materialize. At last, according to the service between the two places will be made, but as the traffic over the line increases the daily trips will also be increased.

For the first few months the new service will devote itself to the carrying of passengers only, but it is expected that later it will develop into a coast line for the carrying of automobiles.

The new line will mean much to Oakland, and every effort is being made by local authorities to make it a success.

Other thefts reported are as follows:

L. Turner, 364 Eleventh street, room entered and shirts valued at $5 taken.

H. Holtzman, 814 East Eleventh street, $250 taken from pocket of garments left hanging in Pacific Lumber Company's closet.

Elmer Forbush, 1707 Grove street, suit of clothes stolen from room.

Elmer grocery, Eighth and Chester streets, rear window forced and $24 in coin and $10 worth of goods taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Josselyn, who are from a broad a few days ago, are established at their home in the Woodside.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Avenall (Mary Josselyn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Josselyn) are participating in the family reunion at Woodside.

Mrs. Anna Jay arrived from Boston a day or two ago to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Alden Cooke, at the Fairmont hotel.

Mrs. Frederika Otis has issued invitations for a dinner in compliment to Miss Inez Keeney and Mr. Willard Chamberlain. It will take place Tuesday evening, October 22, at the Jameson.

Miss Keeney has been constantly feted since the announcement of her engagement. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alden Cooke are among those who have given dinner recently in her honor.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. William Chapman for a dinner to be held on the evening of October 22. The guests have been hidden to the Palace Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Dwight Chapman, of the San Francisco home, are spending the winter in town, having leased the Lloyd Baldwin's house on Webster and Clay streets. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Jr., at home in Scott street, will be at home on Friday night, and suddenly became unconscious yesterday, died at St. Joseph's Hospital this afternoon.

AN INTERESTING event in the social annals of San Mateo was the christening of Christian de Grotte III by the Grace of God at the Receiving Hospital yesterday.

Patrick Buckley, discovered that there was a nail in a railing, even though within the precincts of his own home. While diving into a bathtub last night he slipped and fractured one of his right ribs. After the bath he went to the Receiving Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Brown.

EDDIE AGAIN ARRESTED; FAINTS WHEN SERVED

Los Angeles City Attorney Is Accused by Octogenarian Girl

The complainant, Alma Jones, aged 19, is an octogenarian. Eddie had been a court reporter for the Hall of Records when the warrant was served upon him.

The complainant against the city prosecutor in the new case, like Mrs. Phelps, is a married woman. According to the complainant, Eddie approached Mrs. Jones in the manner he is alleged to have made advances to her.

Her husband is a Pullman car porter, who she alleges, left her shortly before she visited Eddie for the first time. In fact, she was in Eddie's office, the office of the city attorney, the last time shortly before officers broke in his door and found him in the company of Mrs. Phelps.

She asserts, he sought to illustrate to her the indignities she would have to endure in prosecuting her work. Mrs. Jones said she went to Eddie first to obtain aid in some domestic difficulties.

Satan Rebuking Sin.

The San Francisco Chronicle closes a characteristic editorial with this statement: "All that is asked of our contemporaries is that all the facts be laid before their readers."

Our contemporaries will never get the facts if they look to the Chronicle for them. Here is a sample of the "facts" which our San Francisco contemporary asks the interior press to take at its face value:

"The opposition seems to come from a coterie of Oakland politicians who do not wish to see present arrangements disturbed. It will be noted that it is only in the name of 'Oakland' that any opposition is made, and yet there are many other municipalities within Greater San Francisco much less able than Oakland to defend themselves."

The other day the Chronicle veraciously stated that the people of Oakland and Berkeley desired to consolidate with San Francisco, and then went on to delicately represent that the annexation amendment was framed to permit them to do as they wished. Now it says nobody opposes the amendment but a group of Oakland politicians.

This is a fight of the people, not the politicians, and well the Chronicle knows it. The persons in Oakland and Berkeley who want annexation are for the most part paid emissaries of San Francisco.

For more than two years San Francisco has been trying, without success, to generate a sentiment in favor of annexation in Alameda county. The money to finance this propaganda is furnished by an association formed in San Francisco having for its object the annexation of all the contiguous towns and cities. The annexation amendment was framed for this association. The petitions for putting it on the ballot were circulated at the expense of the same association. If any outsider took a hand in the business, he was paid for his services.

One annexationist of the Dugald Dalgetty stripe, in particular, has made himself notorious and objectionable by his persistent efforts to deliver the people of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley over to the tender mercies of San Francisco. While serving as a member of the Oakland City Council, the same man acted as attorney for claimants to a portion of Oakland's waterfront, and in his anxiety to serve his clients he transferred his activities from the courtroom to the council chamber and finally to the lobby of the Legislature at Sacramento. His motives are well understood. Yet the Chronicle, with cool effrontery, pretends that this man represents public sentiment on this side of the bay, and calls the Oakland Chamber of Commerce "a group of politicians."

The Chronicle resolutely declines to go behind the face of the annexation amendment. It refuses to discuss the genesis of the proposition or the purpose behind it. Nor will it treat of the use that it is proposed to make of the amendment or the methods that will be adopted to make it effective. The design was expressed in the annexation measure Senator Wolfe made such a hard fight to get the Legislature to adopt two years ago. The fox is trying to get at the geese in another way.

Our San Francisco contemporary blandly dismisses all the objections raised by the people whose rights and liberties are insidiously attacked in these few lines:

"The people ought to be made to understand that it is not in the mind of any one to abolish the present political units, but only to transfer certain powers over matters of common interest to a common authority covering all the greater city."

The common authority would be San Francisco. The chief matters of common interest would be taxation and harbor improvements. San Francisco wants to bond her neighbors for municipal improvements she has projected on a vast scale—on the peninsula—and she is opposed to the development of port facilities at any other point on San Francisco bay. Transfer these matters of common interest to the common authority (San Francisco) and the cities on this side of the bay would lose all control over their own finances and the waterfront, the development of which means so much to Oakland and her sister cities. The Chronicle is the spokesman of the annexation scheme, and the Chronicle has never looked with a friendly eye on the dock and wharf improvements Oakland has projected on the waterfront. What it says commendatory of this city is usually printed in a supplement that is not circulated with its regular edition.

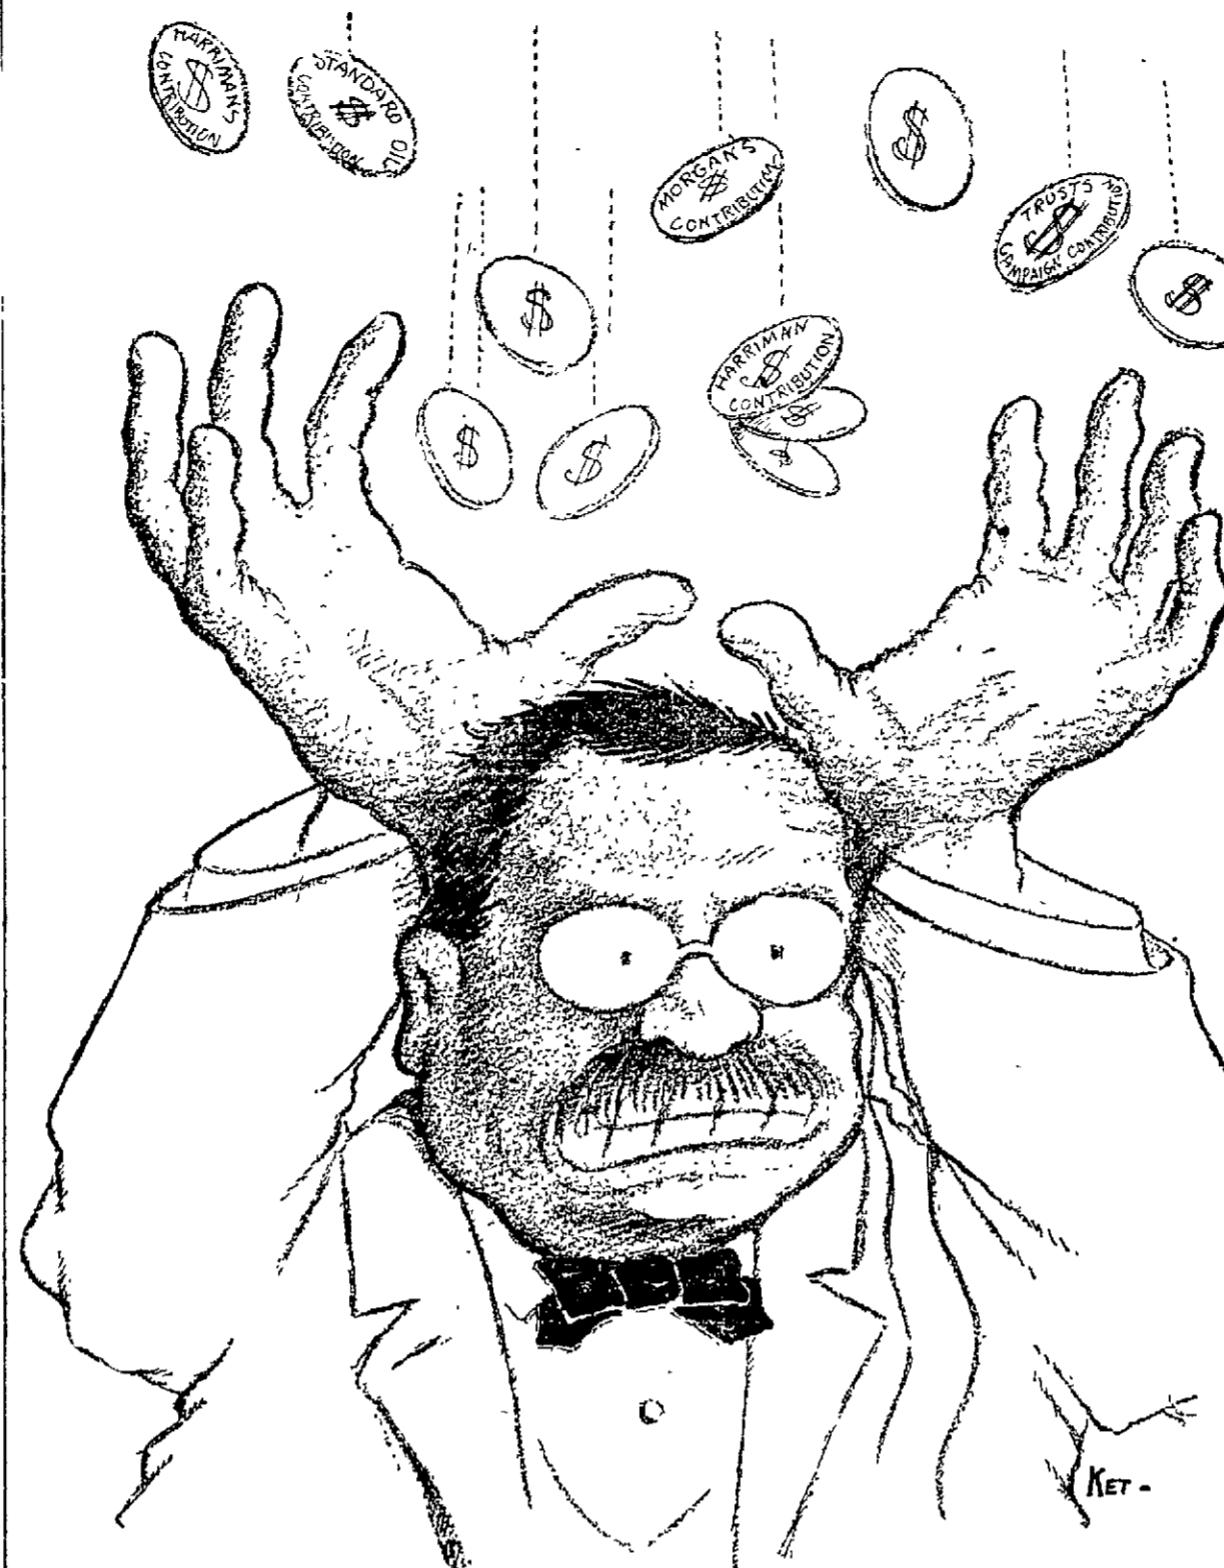

It editorialized recently on a reported suburban railway deal relating exclusively to this field, and it began its remarks with the statement that the reported development was to be "in the section of Greater San Francisco situated in Alameda county." This was a manifest attempt to convey the impression that the reported railway building was to be in San Francisco. The fact that it was to be in a district entirely distinct and separate from San Francisco with Oakland as the radiating point was carefully concealed.

Yet the Chronicle talks of lying. It should take a few practice lessons in candor before it resorts to the shorter and uglier word.

It is an excellent idea to put a gallery for art displays in the auditorium building, providing it can be done without trenching on the function the auditorium is intended to serve. A place where art exhibitions can be held will be a good thing—indeed, such a place is a necessity for Oakland. If a course of art lectures can be provided that will be still better. An art school would be a still greater benefit. Oakland is an artistic community, and there is much latent talent here which can be developed if given proper encouragement and provided with facilities for study and instruction. Private beneficence usually provides such facilities elsewhere, and it will be a happy day when some wealthy citizen of Oakland decides to earn posthumous fame and present gratification by endowing an art school. Recently an art gallery and art school were opened in New Orleans—the gift of a public-spirited citizen. His example should not be lost on the rich men of Oakland. All fire engines, street sweepers and sprinkling carts should be motor driven. A number of cities are making the change from horses to motors, and efficiency and economy speak for a similar change in other cities. It is a contradiction for horses to be cleaning the streets while engaged in cleaning them. The motor necessarily increases the efficiency of fire engines. The saving in feed for horses is a big item. Horses used to pull sprinkling carts out their heads off in the stable in wet weather. Many experts say that a change from horses to motors will entail an objection that will not stand the test of examination. Antiquated, inefficient and expensive methods cannot be retained on the ground that the immediate cost of discarding them will be heavy. The changes may be made gradually, and that is the way they are being brought about in other cities.

The Weakness of Moral Crusades.

Moral crusades may become so intrusive as to make themselves contemptible. When they descend to mere nagging and the crusaders organize themselves into smelling committees and try to make everybody live up to a narrow rule formulated by themselves, they are apt to disgust people quite as good as themselves by their interference with personal liberty in small matters, and liable, also, to bring contempt on a movement having a worthy object in view.

The standard of public morals must not be made too narrow nor placed on the basis of sectarian prejudice. A cosmopolitan community cannot be made to conform to Puritan regulations adapted to a rural village inhabited by a people homogeneous in tastes, habits and manners.

People cannot be made virtuous by law nor are questions of morality to be determined by the obscene suggestions which mere vulgarity conveys to some minds. Some people's eyes are so sharpened for indecency that they perceive indecency in a naked oyster, and cannot be brought to understand that very common sights do not convey the same prurient suggestion to others as to them.

But the point we wish to make is that when reforms are too finicky they become contemptible, and that they can be made so meddlesome as to antagonize elements in the community whose support it is necessary to have if real vice is to be suppressed. It is a calamity when a purifying movement becomes the object of popular aversion and ridicule.

Nothing is gained by smelling every man's breath to see if he has been drinking whisky or rummaging in closets for concealed skeletons. In some matters individuals have the right to decide for themselves what is immoral and what is corrupting. Tastes cannot be elevated under pretense of suppressing vice; nor is it wise to impose too many restrictions on personal conduct.

Misjudged efforts in this direction are frequently followed by reactions lamentable in their effects. The gloomy austerities of the Puritan regime were succeeded by the most licentious era recorded in English history. Rigid Sabbatarianism made a people natural virtuous, serious and high-minded flock to the obscene comedies of Wycherley. We should know by this time that true piety is not inculcated by driving people to church and forbidding them to amuse themselves in healthy sport in the open air. Minds are not made pure by pointing out to them every suggestion of impurity that a poster, a statue or a play may make to an intelligence on the lookout to detect some hint of indecency or immorality. Tell a boy a book is nasty and lock it up, and ten to one he will contrive to get at it and see for himself how nasty it is. And the misfortune is that he will search for impurities. His curiosity will be heated and sharpened by salacity. Looking for filth, he will throw the literary beauties aside unnoticed.

People who undertake to reform the morals of a community will go wrong if they lose sight of human nature; that must always be considered. Moreover, they must be reasonable, and not too intent upon making the public adopt their individual notions of conduct. Above all they must recognize that others have a right to their opinion, and that differences of opinion cannot be overridden by the dictum of a minority bent upon making everybody do as they say. Usually purity crusades are brought to grief by the intolerance, bigotry and violence of reformers who are as blind to lessons of human experience as they are to the elementary principles of personal liberty.

British scientists are indicating their belief that the long-sought method of making synthetic rubber, or rubber by chemistry, has really been found, and are maintaining their belief in spite of the doubts cast by previously announced discoveries and subsequent failures. The process of making rubber from fuel oil was recently announced by Professor W. H. Perkin, of Manchester University, on behalf of a group of scientists who had conducted the experiments. Of the result, the conservative and authoritative London Lancet says: "It is probable that we are recording a synthetic triumph of the greatest moment in the world, for it is not a rubber substitute that has been made, but rubber itself."

Not only do the British scientists claim to be able to produce rubber for 20 cents a pound, while the natural product is selling for 80 cents, but they also announce that the by-products of the process are fuel alcohol, suitable for automobile engines, and acetone, the incorporating element in the manufacture of the higher-power explosive known as cordite. The alcohol can be marketed for much less than gasoline and is a safer and cleaner fuel. Acetone, in the limited available supply, costs at present $150 a ton. As a byproduct of a rubber manufacture it is claimed that it can be sold for $150 a ton. Modern warfare depends on acetone to prevent the spontaneous explosion of cordite.—Popular Mechanics.

MILLS' BANK LEAVES 60-YEAR-OLD HOME

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 14.—Established in 1850 and the oldest financial institution in the State, or at least in Northern California, the D. O. Mills National Bank has left its old quarters at Second and J streets to new $100,000 building at Seventh and J streets, was an interesting spectacle to those who remember the days of '49. D. O. Mills was one of the first bankers of the gold dust period.

A couple of men placed a couple of trays of gold pieces in a clothes basket and carried the money from the building which the D. O. Mills bank had occupied, until $800,000 in gold, silver and currency was placed in the new building, under shotgun guard, to be ready for the opening of business today in the new building.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

MRS. WILSON BUYS NEW GOWNS FOR HIGH OFFICIAL FUNCTIONS

The Wife of Candidate Closes Expensive Shopping Tour.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson has just closed a shopping tour in Philadelphia, which accounted for a great deal of her intimate friends, will result in providing her with a number of very handsome costumes suitable for important public appearances.

The wife of the Democratic Presidential candidate has regularly shopped in the Quaker City for many years, but her purchases on this trip are said to have been somewhat more expensive and elaborate than usual. Though Mrs. Wilson is as reticent as her husband on all such personal subjects, it is learned that her purchases have included material for at least seven gowns costing, so experts in those matters say, as much as $200 or $300 apiece.

Each of these costumes, according to the head of the establishment where they were arranged for, will be sufficiently elaborate for wear at any public function, and, in fact, compare well with many of the dresses worn in Washington in the last several years. Her stock of furs, as well as hats and gloves, has been replenished in a liberal manner by Mrs. Wilson.

Wed In Esperanto

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—What is declared to be the first marriage ever consummated through the medium of Esperanto, the so-called universal tongue, came to light yesterday, when it became known that D. E. Parrish of this city, a delegate to the International Congress of Esperantists at Copenhagen, has acquired a bride in the person of Paula Givens, a native Dane and also a delegate to the congress.

Parrish could speak no Danish, and Miss Givens no English. But that did not bother them in the least. They were introduced in Esperanto, went to the lectures and discussed them in Esperanto, whispered foolish nothings in that tongue, plighted their troth and were married in Esperanto. Whether or not they will continue to use the tongue between themselves for the rest of their lives remains to be seen.

Parrish is the son of H. H. Parrish of this city. He went abroad, commissioned by the Chamber of Commerce to deliver lectures on California. He and his Esperanto-Danish bride landed in New York Wednesday and will be here next week.

Celebrates Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Fanny Briger Carr, famous for three years of the most strenuous marital infidelity, the annals of the local courts, yesterday celebrated her divorce from Maurice Adrián King with a party and barbecue at the Glendale Ranch, Glendale, which she has recently acquired by an order of the court after it had been contested, physically and legally by King.

The invited guests numbered about 100 and were those men and women who had assisted Mrs. Carr in the bitter struggle. She and King were married in 1903 and Mrs. King fled her suit for divorce seven years later. The interlocutory decree was granted last April.

In the last three years, the former Mrs. King has had her husband arrested eleven times on various charges. Fist fights have been numerous, the allies of both sides taking whole-hearted part and gus play figured in at least one of the battles at the Vizcaya ranch. Altogether the Kings have been in court more than any two other persons in the history of the county and probably in the state.

WOMEN OF THE STATE AID OAKLAND FIGHTERS INTERIOR NOW AROUSED TO DANGERS OF CONSPIRACY

LETTERS TELL OF WORK DONE

Speakers Are Sent Out to Warn Californians Against Annexation.

Alameda County's Battle Is Taken Up With Great Vigor.

The campaign against the constitutional amendment whereby San Francisco hopes to gobble up Oakland and surrounding towns, that is being carried on by the Women's Auxiliary of the Alameda County League is bringing in excellent results in the interior of the State. Letters are being received daily at headquarters by Mrs. Sarah C. Borland announcing that women's organizations throughout the State have been aroused to the importance of defeating the proposed amendment, that they are arranging meetings and working up sentiment against the annexation scheme.

The women of the auxiliary are now preparing to send out speakers for these meetings and in a few days will announce the dates.

The Richmond Club, of Richmond, composed of the leading women of that town, will hold an important meeting on the fourth Monday of this month. The women of Contra Costa county have taken up the campaign against the annexation scheme enthusiastically.

CLUB ORGANIZED. At Pine a new club has been organized by the ladies of the town for the purpose of defeating the amendment. A large membership has already been enrolled, and a mass meeting will be called shortly. The Women's Auxiliary of the Alameda County League has been asked to send a speaker for the occasion. Mrs. Kate Hall is president.

The Orland Improvement Club, of which Mrs. A. E. Baugh is president, will hold a meeting in a public hall shortly to consider the question of the amendment.

The Women's Civic League of Los Gatos will also hold a meeting shortly for the same purpose.

Bernard P. Miller returned today from a tour of speakmaking through Paso Robles, Los Gatos and Monterey, where he addressed large and enthusiastic meetings of voters on the evils of the proposed annexation amendment. Miller was accompanied by C. M. Wardell and George E. Keefe. They rode through small towns on their way in an automobile and had many street meetings as well.

TO TOUR INTERIOR. Harry Puleifer, W. H. Wellby and John Jordan left today for the San Joaquin and Napa counties, where they will visit Santa Rosa, Napa and other cities and make speeches against the annexation amendment. Jordan has already been over the ground and has interviewed many prominent men in both counties. He reported last week that he had found much strong sentiment against the annexation scheme.

The press of the interior of the State has printed many strong editorials recently against the proposed constitutional amendment. The Livermore Enterprise, in a recent editorial, says:

"Alameda county's fight against being gobbled up by San Francisco, which is being directed by the Alameda County League, has been taken up by many of the interior communities of the State, who have come to realize during the past few days that the annexation amendment to the constitution carries danger for them as well as for the cities about the bay which San Francisco wishes to 'annex.'

This sentiment against annexation is well shown by the newspapers of the interior, many of which have expressed themselves editorially in no mincing words against the adoption of the constitutional amendment that will make it possible for San Francisco to swallow up its neighbors and saddle upon them its burdens of bond issues and prevent them from developing independent and competing water fronts. The newspapers of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys in particular have expressed themselves.

MEETS WITH DISFAVOR.

The Ventura Democrat says:

"The proposed amendment to the constitution to enable San Francisco to gobble up all the cities, towns and municipalities around and about the bay against the desire of the inhabitants thereof, and make of them one greater San Francisco, is meeting with much disfavor throughout the State, grounded on the natural distaste of the people to such an unnatural power and influence in any municipality as being predicated to the general interests of the whole people of the State. We think the objections well taken."

Walter G. Manuel, F. S. Lawrence, Ben F. Woolner and Peter J. Crowley have returned from their tour of the Sacramento valley, where they held many successful meetings. They spoke in Woodland, Willows, Red Bluff, Marysville and were well received. They also interviewed many prominent citizens throughout the valley and found sentiment strong against the annexation amendment.

DEFEAT OF CONSOLIDATION IS REGARDED AS CERTAIN

(Fresno Republican)

THE mere fact that Oakland is actively opposing the city consolidation amendment, to be voted on this fall, will probably defeat it. With no serious interest in favor of the amendment, outside of San Francisco and possibly Los Angeles, and with very active opposition to it, the result may be taken as certain.

And to a man up a tree, which is exactly the position most of the state occupies, it looks as if this is the result to be desired. The state at large is not interested directly in the consolidation of San Francisco and the trans-bay cities. Consolidation may come, some day, but there is no need of making it too temptingly easy as there is such a strong sentiment against it among the trans-bay residents. But the whole state is decidedly interested in the improvement of San Francisco's harbor. Docking facilities are not growing as fast as commerce, and San Francisco alone is not able, for the present, to keep pace with its commercial growth. That means that it is important to all of us, and not merely to Oakland, to have the Oakland side of the bay rapidly developed. Oakland is doing that now, under the stimulus of local interest and competition, and is likely to continue to do so more rapidly than would happen under the non-competitive control of a consolidated city dominated from the San Francisco side. After these improvements are complete it may not be improper to consider consolidation again. But until then, at least, the interests of the interior are against consolidation.

GRAFT WHIP FALLS ON SHOULDERS OF POLICE

San Francisco Force Is Shaken by Grave Accusation of Plot

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The police department is in a ferment of excitement this morning over intimations of graft and accusations of a conspiracy in connection with the robbery of George Kelly, proprietor of the Midway cafe on Pacific street, which occurred October 1. In his apartments at 1160 Ellis street. Rumors were buzzing about the hall of justice that a sweeping inquiry would be likely to uncover other similar cases of alleged juggling which the police power on the part of officers and Chief of Police White gave it attention to nothing save a private investigation of the charges.

The charges briefly are that following the robbery of Kelly, who was held up in his apartment when he was sitting with his wife, eating supper at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, and the theft of money and jewelry to the value of several thousand dollars, the police arrested a suspect and afterwards proceeded to a suspect and afterwards proceeded to "square" the case. "Kid" Sullivan, who was known as the king of the pickpockets, and ex-Police Commissioner Sullivan, are mentioned by the accuser as having a possible connection with the arranging for the quieting of the whole affair and there are numerous angles which Assistant District Attorney Maxwell McNutt is investigating.

ACCUSED OF VAGRANCY. Following the robbery of Kelly, Harry Stone, a waiter, formerly employed at the Midway, was arrested on the Barbary Coast and held in custody at the city prison subsequently to be charged with vagrancy and last week was released by the police on recognizance. It was claimed that he was taken into custody by Patrolmen Balleto and Kalmach. The latter officer was not on duty at the time of the robbery and last week was released by the police on recognizance. It was claimed that he was taken into custody by Patrolmen Balleto and Kalmach. It was claimed that he was taken into custody by Patrolmen Balleto and Kalmach. The latter officer was not on duty at the time of the robbery and last week was released by the police on recognizance.

TOOK ALL OF THE ALLEGED PARTICIPANTS IN THE ARREST OF STONE, INCLUDING THE DETECTIVE WHO WORKED ON THE KELLY ROBBERY, HAVE BEEN SUBPENNA'D TO APPEAR AT A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER WHEN THE MATTER WILL BE THOROUGHLY GOING ON.

Detective Arthur McPherson, who was detailed on the Stone case, stated this morning that he had done his best to keep the alleged suspect in custody.

"After his arrest I was detailed to make an investigation," said the officer. "I worked night and day for six days, but I seemed unable to get anything tangible. During this time Stone remained in custody. I did not like to keep him there any longer and so I charged him with vagrancy. Last Friday I asked Judge Weller to fix his bail at $100. He had no sooner left the courtroom when he was released on his own recognizance."

VERIFIED CHARGES.

There are veiled charges against an official in the office of Chief Police White, who is accused of having been responsible for the condition of the police which would permit of graft in connection with the commission of a crime of this kind. In speaking of the investigation about to be made, Assistant District Attorney McNutt said:

"I do not propose to allow politics or any other set of men to prevent my going through with this affair. Commissioner Roche told me that the police commission would take the matter with Mayor Price, and that he would then consider it. I have described to him what I found to exist in the police department there would be more than one removed and that Chief White's head might be among those which might be decapitated. I do not charge White with dishonesty. I believe he is honest enough, but I do not believe he chooses the right friends. I don't care who the guilty ones are. You may believe me when I say I will make this straight up to the grand jury."

IT WAS CALLED "MY ATTENTION SOME TIME AGO" THAT "KID" SULLIVAN WAS IN FINANCIAL STRAITS. I SAW HIM THE OTHER DAY AND I NOTICED THAT HE APPEARED QUITE PROSPEROUS."

IT IS CLAIMED THAT STONE WAS IDENTIFIED BY MRS. KELLY AS THE HOLD-UP MAN AND THAT KELLY HIMSELF HELD HIS FORMER WAITER TO BE GUILTY, BUT THAT AFTERWARDS, WHEN IT WAS SOUGHT TO IDENTIFY HIM, SO AS TO PLACE A CHARGE OF ROBBERY, HIS ALLEGED VICTIM REFUSED TO BE POSITIVE.

APPEARS IN COURT.

At 10 o'clock Stone appeared before Judge Weller on the vagrancy charge and was ordered into custody pending a full and complete investigation.

CLAIMS LAWYER THREATENED HIM

William J. Herrin Accused of Felony Offense in Sending Letter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Attorney William J. Herrin, prominent among the younger lawyers of this city, is accused of violating section 522 of the Penal Code, in a warrant sworn out here today. The section makes it a felony to send a threatening letter to a citizen.

The accused is Herrin. His attorney, who is employed in a local piano house, claims that he was threatened with prosecution for white slavery if he did not immediately turn over to Pearl Evans the sum of $800.

Arnovitch informs District Attorney Finkert that he had just received a copy of a complaint from Herrin, in which the Evans woman accused him of wrongfully obtaining the money from her. He paid no attention to this and he says that subsequently the lawyer wrote to him and informed him that Miss Evans was prepared to prosecute him for white slavery if he did not at once hand over the sum.

MOTORCYCLIST IS FATALLY INJURED

Leo Martin Dies as Result of Accident in Elmhurst.

Injuries received in a motorcycle accident early Sunday morning resulted in the death of Leo Martin, 701 Twenty-sixth street, employed as a driver for the Motor Delivery Company. Martin was taken to the East Pointen street in Elmhurst, where the accident happened, to the receiving hospital. A fractured skull and other injuries caused death within a few hours.

Martin had been making a trip to San Jose on his motorcycle. They were driving the machine at a rapid rate when it skidded, throwing them to the street. Wilson escaped with painful lacerations and bruises. Martin was 22 years of age. The body has been removed to the morgue where an inquest will be held.

INJURED BY AUTO. W. F. Taylor of 1517 East Seventh street, was run down by an unidentifiable automobile at Eleventh and Washington streets at an early hour this morning. He was taken to a number of hospitals and homes of the receiving hospital. He was found to be suffering from a fractured skull and nearly all his new.

He was interviewed many prominent citizens throughout the city and found them well received.

CHECKS GIVEN M'NAMARAS IDENTIFIED

Former Broker Declares the Money Was for "Emergency Fund."

Thousands Monthly for Explosives, Was Set Aside, Charges Government.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—Checks by which the government charges the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers allowed J. J. McNamara $1000 a month to buy explosives were identified by Mrs. A. J. Hull of Omaha at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

Mrs. Hull, who was a bookkeeper for McNamara at the iron workers' headquarters in Indianapolis when explosives about the country were frequent, testified that the checks were signed by Frank M. Ryan, president, and by McNamara as secretary-treasurer. All these checks, she said, were marked "emergency fund."

The government charges that just prior to the payment of regular sums to McNamara, for which he was requested to give no accounting, the executive board suspended the rules requiring publication of accounts and that $1000 a month went to McNamara until after the explosions at Los Angeles, enabling him to pay the expenses of the dynamiting crew.

Eugene A. Clancy of San Francisco, Herbert S. Mocklin, Phillip C. Coley and Moulton H. Davis are alleged to have voted the money to McNamara.

REPORTS HIS WIFE AMONG MISSING

D. Seyfred Declares Spouse and Baby Failed to Return Home.

Mrs. Grace Seyfred was reported missing to the police and her husband, D. Seyfred, 1521 Governor's sixth avenue, fears that some mishap has occurred. Mrs. Seyfred left her home yesterday afternoon to come into the central part of the city, stating that she would return home before dark. She had her two-year-old child with her. At three o'clock this morning she had not returned and the anxious husband, who had telephoned to all his wife's relatives, notified the police.

Seyfred is also a lost man for his wife's disappearance, and he has asked the hospital to be searched. There were no difficulties, he says, between him and his wife, and he believes that she has met with foul play or has become ill somewhere.

Mrs. Seyfred is described as of fair complexion with blue eyes and brown hair. She weighed 115 pounds, was 5 feet 6 inches in height and when last seen wore with white sarge suit, blue hat trimmed with white ostrich plume.

HUNDREDS OF WOMEN TRY OUT FOR BLOOD

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The number of the alleged victims of the Great Eastern Woolen Mills has been increased to 200 women and all of them clamored for admission to Police Judge Shortal's court this morning, when Charles W. Hickey, his wife, Leilah, John Dieckman, Morris Schoen and H. Thomas appeared for trial on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses. The women assert that they paid $15 with the prospect of getting a $15 suit by means of a lottery resembling a lottery drawing and that the promised reward was not forthcoming.

The accused were represented by Attorneys Thompson and Marshall and demanded a jury trial and the case of Hickey was selected for hearing October 17, at 9 a.m.

PLEADS GUILTY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Peter J. Perez, a clerk in the Railway Postal Service, pleaded guilty this morning to charges of rifling the mails. He admitted that he had taken money and currency from mail matter passing through his hands. He was arrested on October 6, and will be sentenced tomorrow.

AT WALDO'S DIRECTION.

Sheehan said he had signed the document at the direction of Commissioner Waldo. On the plea that the witness had given only his "opinion" as to the authenticity of Becker's signature, the defense objected to the identification of the paper.

Judge Goff refused to allow the papers to be admitted and "Bridgit" Webber was called.

He said his real name was Louis and that he was a gambler. He had known Herman Rosenthal for fifteen years and Jack Rose for the same time. Becker had known for two years.

"Did you ever have conversation with Becker about Rosenthal?"

INCRIMINATES BECKER.

"Yes, with Harry Fallon and Jack Rose, the latter part of the month," said Webber.

"What are you doing about that?"

"Rosenthal," Becker said to me," Webber testified. "He's doing me; he's got to be crooked."

"I said, 'Charlie, that's a pretty dangerous thing to do to murder a man.'

"That's all right," said Becker.

"That's all right," said Becker.

"Bridgit" died of a subsequent meeting with Becker.

"What are you doing about that?"

"Rosenthal," Becker said to me," Webber testified.

"Never mind," said Becker. "I'll take care of you and the game."

Webber testified he heard Becker say at the time.

"I just saw him (Rosenthal) lying there in my poker room with Jack Rose."

"That's terrible," said Becker.

"He's got to be crooked."

"Never mind," said Becker.

"I'll take care of you and the game."

IN THE ISLAND CITYPLAN A DEBATE
ON ANNEXATIONMISS V. BERLIN WILL MAKE HER DEBUT AT RECEPTIONBerkeley Chamber of Commerce to Hear Ins and Outs of Consolidation.

BERKELEY, Oct. 14.—The Chamber of Commerce is arranging a meeting for next Saturday evening at the Berkeley High School auditorium for a consideration of the annexation amendment. The Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the Greater San Francisco Association have been invited to speak on both sides. The meeting will be on the nature of a debate of the situation. The chamber has sent the following letter to the two organizations asking that the meeting be arranged in the auditorium of the appointed room of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, in order to arrange for the citizens of the city of Berkeley a public discussion of the reasons urged for and against constitutional annexation. Now, a constitutional amendment is the formation of city and county governments, under which it might be possible to consolidate two or more cities now existing on or near the shores of San Francisco, but which are now separate entities.

"Trusting that we may have an opportunity to speak on our own account, we have engaged for your convenience the high school auditorium. Allston was near Grove street and suggested that the meeting be held on the evening of Thursday, October 17, at 8 o'clock. We trust that the Greater San Francisco Association and the Oakland Chamber of Commerce may each appoint a representative for the occasion, to the end that our people shall receive full information touching the question involved, and that a proposed legislation to be submitted to the voters of the state.

"We are concerned particularly to have discussed what direct effect, if any, the adoption of said amendment would have on our city, especially as it concerns the communities on the east side of the Bay of San Francisco. Also, we desire to be enlightened as to what advantage, profit or good, if any, is likely to accrue to Berkeley and the eastern side of the Bay of San Francisco, to Greater San Francisco, as established.

"If you will favor us with your valuable services, please notify our secretary at earliest convenience, using the telephone or any other means required, at our expense."

HENRY DID NOT DISTURB THE MEETING

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—The statement that Francis J. Henry led in the efforts to disconcert the speakers at the turbulent political meeting in Los Angeles September 17, appears to be unwarranted and untrue to Henry. While John M. Harlan was speaking there were constant interruptions and much confusion in which adherents of all three of the leading presidential candidates appear to have participated. Henry was present, and followed Mayor L. C. Lusk, former vice-lieutenant to the state, on the invitation of Harlan, but he should not be charged with lending an attempt to disrupt the meeting.

The lecture will be open to men other than members of the Knights of Columbus.

The speaker's subject will be "The Present Situation, Political and Otherwise, in China." Father Kestner speaks Chinese fluently. His lecture tour will take him to San Jose, Los Angeles and eastern cities and will end at Techy, Illinois, where the Franciscans have a large institution.

TWO RUNAWAY GIRLS
RETURNED TO HOME

ALAMEDA, Oct. 14.—Josephine Conde, 18, and Emily Clebriger, 18, were returned to the California Girls' Training Home in Alameda, from San Francisco, where they had been living in a rooming house in the city, hidden from their parents in an automobile with two men, and eventually captured in Oakland, where they were recognized by Police Officer A. E. Smith, who took them into custody. The girls, however, are now home and are repentant today.

LIVED IN ALAMEDA FOR FIFTY YEARS

ALAMEDA, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Annie O'Brien, who was buried today, was a widow of Alameda, having lived in Alameda when Mrs. O'Brien came to this city. But few men who lived here 50 years ago are now alive.

The services of Mrs. O'Brien were from the Josephine Catholic church this morning. Mrs. O'Brien was a native of Ireland and 78 years of age. She was the mother of Mrs. E. Castle, Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. L. Fouts and C. H. O'Brien. Mrs. O'Brien was the widow of the late Jeremiah O'Brien.

At the late morning mass, Rev. Thomas K. O'Neill, chaplain of the club, made as the text, "Remember Thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the time of affliction cometh, and the time of judgment cometh, that sayeth not, 'Behold, a great punishment is coming upon you'." PIEDMONT CITY CLERK
IS OUT TEN DOLLARS

Town Official Cannot Act as an Officer on an Election Board

T. J. Stalger, city clerk of Piedmont, is out ten dollars today, and once again the question of whether a town official can serve on an election board has been brought into issue.

Stalger, while holding the office of town clerk for Piedmont, served also as an election officer at the state primary. It is generally understood that he has been in the habit of drawing down $10 a day on other elections.

On the last occasion two or three partisans telephoned to the county clerk's office complaining that Stalger's presence on an election board there was in violation of the political code.

PROTEST AGAINST LICENSE.

Miss G. R. Crocker, chairman of the civic committee of the County Club of Washington township, protested against a liquor license being granted upon the facts at this morning's session.

That section of the code, the meaning of which is not clear, is as follows:

"No person shall be eligible to act as an officer of election at any precinct in which he has been employed in any official capacity in the county. OR CITY AND COUNTY, within 90 days preceding any election."

Johnston expressed the opinion this morning that the clause "city and county" referred to San Francisco's form of consolidated government, and not to "cities or counties." He contended that town officials in many places served on general election boards. Stalger, however, will not get his $10 and the censure in Alameda county will be stopped.

CONTRACT FOR BRIDGE.

George W. Hess was awarded the contract for constructing a concrete bridge in Castro valley on his bid of $129,45 at unit prices. The firm of Lessen Bros. submitted a bid of $127,50, which was rejected as not conforming to the specifications of the political code.

Chief Deputy County Clerk Andy Johnston took the attitude that the code referred only to county officials and Stalger was not disturbed.

The matter, however, was carried to County Auditor Garrison, who held up Stalger's pay check and finally cancelled it, after having conferred with the district attorney's office.

Garrison formally acquainted the members of the board of supervisors of these facts at this morning's session.

OAKLANDER ACCUSED
BY ALAMEDA BARBER

ALAMEDA, Oct. 14.—Joseph Marks, living at Thirteenth avenue and East Fourteenth street, Oakland, 22 years of age, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Joseph Deers, a Park street barber, who alleged that Marks had publicly indecently exposed himself to Deers.

Marks was released on $100 cash bail and will appear for trial tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

BIG ROCK ON TRACK
BREAKS CAR FENDER

ALAMEDA, Oct. 14.—A large rock, reasonably valued on the market at $100, was thrown at a fender on a westbound electric train at Eighth street and Franklin avenues at 10:30 o'clock last night. The train crew could find no one who had thrown the rock. The rock had been thrown from the side of the hill. It had torn the fender on the rail. Had it been on the rail the train would probably have been wrecked.

TIED HORSE TO TREE.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 14.—A horse and saddle, which had been left tied to a tree on Franklin street, was arrested yesterday evening on a charge of hitching his horse to an unbroken tree on an Alameda street in violation of city ordinance. The horse is now in custody of the police.

HAROLD C. CAPTURES THE FREE-FOR-ALL TROT

Six Races Furnish Good Sport at the Alameda Race Track

Six good races drew a large crowd yesterday to the joint harness race meet of the Alameda County Driving Club and the California Driving Club. The horses were all chosen and a result the last three races were all split heats.

The feature event was the free-for-all trot. Of the eight horses entered, but three went into the starter's hands. H. Coln's Harold C. was the best of the three and set the pace from the wire in single heats, never being forced.

The 2 1/2 page brought out the fastest bunch of the day and all heats were stepped around 2:12. Five horses scored for the word, but two were withdrawn before the final heat. W. Higgenbottom's D. W. and Lady B. trotted the third and fourth heats. He was also the contender in the other two heats that went to Little Medium and Lady Bell. The latter horse finished second in the second heat, but was placed last for unfitness of the wire in the stretch.

The first race, 2 1/2 furlongs, went to C. P. Seale with Burbank, Duke of Montreys was the contender.

D. Healy's Mission Kid annexed the 2 1/2 pace in two straight. The 2:25 mixed was not fit between Negro and Agnes. Agnes G. was the best horse in the race, three heats to return. Allegro a winner. He took the first and last. Agnes G. won the second. In the deciding heat Allegro set the pace all the way. Agnes G. stayed in third place quite a distance back to the first heat of the journey. She closed up well on the back turn and made a great stretch drive, but could not catch the winner.

In the 2 1/2 pace Lady B. won the cup. C. S. A. L. SELECTIONS BEING MADE Interclass track meets among the youngsters of the local branch of the Catholic Schools' Athletic League, held on the St. Mary's College stadium during the last week, have resulted in partial selections of the members to represent the union or set of the league October 25. St. Joseph's Academy team is training steadily, although Coach Al Forschall has refused to announce the names of the lads to represent the Berkeley Institute, top team in the Junior class.

Louis O'Brien, who lately took charge of the St. Joseph's Institute lads from West Oakland, has not yet had a chance to size up his material, but has a likely looking bunch of lads to represent. He will be ready for tryouts during the coming week on the St. Mary's College track.

St. Anthony's School, East Oakland, has a large batch of youngsters to select from and during the coaching of Gerald Brusher will rival the academy team in point of numbers.

Coach Theo Davis already has an arrangement with the youngsters to represent St. Ignatius. He is, however, nearly all of them will be in the lightweight division. The lads from this school are of small stature and for this reason the coach has decided to enter them in the 100 and 115 pound relay teams. They will be entered in the 70 and 95 pound relay races. The 70-pound team in practice last week covered the distance in record breaking time. Captain Mitchell, supported by Captain W. G. Corrigan, the No. 1 relay, will enter the 95 relay. The 70 relay team will be picked from Baker, W. Adams, Silverla, II, Adams, Hildreth and Brawley.

The school will have a few entries in the discus division. Those already selected by the coach are Young and Cooke, to run in the 115 pound distance races, and Dwyer for one of the heavy sprinters.

Alamedans—Gough, Plumtree, Smith, Bostock, Barrellas, Steadman, Appleby, Hargreaves, Hearn and Curtin.

The Thistles were handed a surprise package at Lincoln park when the Alamedans Rangers held the Scots to a scoreless tie. The work of the baby team of the league was a revelation and they will not prove the easy marks the older teams anticipated.

The young Alamedans proved nervous at the start, but in the second half, when right on top of their opponents, easily earned a draw.

The Alamedans showed a lot of speed in the second half, and but for the sterling work of Dyke, the Barbs' right back, would have scored. Dyke played a sterling game and looks about the best back in his position in the league. The Barbs added their last points in the lead shortly before the interval with a nice shot from the wing, following an individual run.
